

Message Call

Notation : `message_call`

Description : A message call can come from a transaction or internally from contract code execution. It contains DATA an unlimited size byte-array data input to a message call.