World State

Notation : `ws`

Description : Also known as synthesized state. There is one World State per block. The world state consists of all the state transitions that have taken place up to that point to reach the synthesized state.